Lady Amelia Picked by Many Experts to heat Receben in To-morrow's Match Race-C. Ross is Riding Again-Ace High Foois the Sullivan Crowd Again.

"The bookmakers had a winning day, all of them," said Humming Bird Tyler after the races yesterday. "I see some fellows amiling now that have been looking sheet all the season. It's about time the books got something, anyway, for they have had the hardest kind of a road to travel every time the bookmakers won all the way from see to 55,000 each on the day. When T. D. Bullivan's Ase High came home in the first race with 15 to 1 about him the layers had practically clean sheets, with the exception of small wagers made by the followers of fockey Miller. Big Tim, who is busy at the Democratic convention in Buffalo, did not have a bet on his Troubadour coit, who also won the other day without a penny's worth won the other day without a penny's worth of support from the Tammany man. There was a small play across the boards on Prince Hampton, who closed at 10, while Philander was taken both ways by the public at 3 and aven. But the flood of wise coin placed on The Wrestler, backed down a point to 3, was burned up, together with the Western back-ing that G. C. Bennett's Ethon received at is to 5, played down from 4. Jack Bennett and some of the smart clubhouse players cleaned up neatly with Ed Ball in the second event, but the ring won to this race because of the heavy support ac-sorded to John Lyle, the favorite, and I Told You, 7 to 2 second choice.

Thousands were wagered on Killochan, straight and place, in the third event, the backers of this colt breaking even. Big Tim Sullivan and his turf followers also bet extensively on Frank Lord, who carried the Cor sman's colors to victory in spreadeagle style. There was a good play on Tileing to show, together with backing for Mintberia. Acrobat, Mexican Silver and Master Lester. who dropped several points in the quotations.

When Coy Maid won the Occidental the books won another bundle, for the mare was only lightly played across the boards. This was the most open betting event of the day, Dandelion and Ostrich closing equal favorite at 5 to 1. There was a play on Dolly Spanker across the boards, with Good Luck and Cottonown heavily backed to show. Then Cederstrome was played from 40 down to 20, with large wagers recorded on Nealon and Oxford. The Thomas pair, Go Between and Lieber, were also taken at the last moment, three

The players, finding themselves in a groggy state after Coy Maid's success, unbelted on Shot Gun in the fifth, pounding him down to 4 to 5. The old fellow won, but by such a narrow margin that his supporters had a tem-porary attack of heart disease. Handzarra, Right and True and Robin Hood, however, put a lot of wealth into the layers' cash boxes, as none of them could get a part of the purse.

The final blow sustained by the talent the final blow sustained by the talent was the defeat of Holscher in the last race, to-gether with the failure of Supreme to get inside of the money. Both were widely played. Lady Prudence, who had worked mile in 1:40, was also a magnet, and her resa did not enable the books to get away with all of the coin. Blue Stone, who ran second, and was taken three ways, is a full brother to Blues and Blue Cirl. Little Doc, Miss Ogden, James N. and Little Blue were also in some demand.

The match race between Roseben and Lady Amelia, which will be run to-morrow, is causing widespread comment. Among the turf experts, or rather a majority of them, Lady Amelia finds much favor. They be-lieve that she will rule the choice over the big Ben Strome gelding, and that she will be opened at about 4 to 5. Just why this opinion prevails is hard to understand, but the experts say that Roseben cannot outrun the fleet Ben Brush mare and that he has never been "ble to win when a competitor has raced with him on even terms into the tch. In fact the wise men are inclined to believe that Roseben has a yellow streak and that Lady Amelia will prove this assertion when she books up with him. It is also set forth by the admirers of Lady Amelia that Roseben, because of the heavy weights he has been carrying, will not be able to show race. They point out the fact that Lady Amelia has always been practically invincible Gravesend track, and that she has not had so much racing this year as the Ben Strome gelding. Trainer Joyner is con-fident that Lady Amelia will win the title of champion sprinter. He says that she has never been extended, even with heavy bur-dens, and that with 123 pounds, a package that just suits her, she will surely outrun Roseben from the start. Joyner insists that if Roseben is unable to take the track he will be defeated, as he has seldom been able to win by coming from behind. A talk with many horsemen at the track yesterday developed a market preferance for the mare's chances, but Roseven's owner and trainer are not saying a word. They feel that Rose-ben at his best will win, and they will be ready to bet a bunch on his chances. It is believed that 25,000 persons will be on hand to witness this interesting test.

C. Ross, the boy who was badly hurt last week in the accident which resulted in the killing of Jockey Freisnon, resumed work in with Ed Ball in the second race, after taking, daring chances in coming through on the rail, Ross was loudly applauded. As he dismounted at the scales somebody asked the

"I'm all right except for a hole in my head." he replied with a grin. Ross rode Berkeley, Cederatrome and Little Blue in other races, but they did not amount to much. McFadden, who rode Brigantine in the last event, was ned into the rail in a crowding match and had a foot badly-crushed.

while at the post for the fifth event a crazy mare named Adaline B. suddenly reared and fell over on her back. Notter leaped out of the saddle just in time to escape being crushed. The mare ran away, but was caught. This delay, together with the starter's inability to get the field in line for a perfect break. egused a wait of nearly ten minutes at the Many speculators were of the opinion that Ostrich and Coy Maid should have been coupled in the betting in the Occidental Handi-cap. Both were saddled by Trainer J. I. Smith. Ostrich ran in the colors of J. L. McGinnie, who says he is the manager of the McGindle, who says he is the manager of the Kenilworth Stable, in whose interests Coy Maid won. Go Between, who has completely lost his form, was coupled with Lieber, a three-year-old coit by Lieber Karl—The Mecca, who ran in the Thomas silks for the first time. Occidental was run in 1899 for the first time, with these winners: Previous, Pink Cost, Herbert (twice), Caughnawaga, Dainty and

HARD STRUGGLE FOR LE ROY. Defeats Freshman in Three Set Match is

New York L. T. C. Semi-Finals. The lawn tennis tournament of the New York L. T. C. yesterday reached the semi-final round, Robert Le Roy qualifying for the final round by defeating Edward A. Freshman in a three set match. It was not expected that Le Roy would have much trouble with Freshman, but the latter showed great speed in the second set, running it to deuce and then pulling it out at 9-7. The surprise was all the greater because Le Roy won the first at 6-0. In the final set the former intercollegiate chempion won at 6-4. G. Lorraine Wyeth, the State champion of Ohio, defaulted to Morris S. Clark in a match in the second round. Clark and T. R. KINGSTON MARE ONCE AGAIN FOOLS THE TALENT.

With 10 to 1 About Her She Defeats a Good Field at Gravesend-Ace High and Frank Lord Successful for Big Tim Sullivan -- Four Favorites Are Defeated.

That Coy Maid, a four-year-old daughter of Kingston-Bonnie Gal, has been generally underestimated by the form students was again conclusively demonstrated yesterday, when this consistent thoroughbred won the Occidental Handicap, one mile and a furlong, at Gravesend. Coy Maid has won several races this year, always at long odds, and in the Occidental there was plenty of 10 to 1 to be obtained about her. She got a splendid ride, by the way, from Garner, who kept up in second place, while Dolly Spanker, 8 to 1, made the pace for nearly a mile. Then Garner cut the Kingston mare loose and she easily forged to the front, winning by a length and a half in 1:53 2-5, with Dolly Spanker, miller up, lasting long enough to keep the place from Good Luck, 10 to 1, by three parts of a length. Big money was lost on Dandelion, Cottontown, Ostrich and the Thomas entry, Go Between and Lieber. T. D. Sullivan's Ace High, a 15 to 1 shot. ridden by Miller, made all the running in the first race, a handicap for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, winning in a drive by half a length from H. B. Duryea's Prince Hampton, 10 to 1. The latter stood a hard drive from Hildebrand and beat James R. Chelsea Stable's The Wrestler, an equal favorite with Philander, got a bad looking ride. The top weight, Ethon, well played at 18 to 5, was anchored. The race was run

Miller made his run with John Lyle, 3 to 2 favorite in the second event, for platers, at a mile and a sixteenth, entirely too soon, so that when J. A. Bennet's Ed Ball, backed down to 5, closed with a great rush Lyle had nothing left and Ball won galloping by a length and a half in 1:48. Lyle had three lengths over Enoch Wishard's Neptunus, 15 to 1. Garner got T. D. Sullivan's Frank Lord,

3 to 2 favorite, off running in the third race, for two-year-olds, about six furlongs, the colt just breezing home eight lengths in front of Frank McCabe's Killochan, backed from down to 13 to 5. Miller rode the latter who was outrup all the way, yet managed to take the place from Tileing, 25 to 1, by three parts of a length. The time was 1:10 3-5. to take the place from Theing, 2s to 1, by three parts of a length. The time was 1:10 3-5. After a long delay at the post Starter Cassidy sent the field in the fifth event, for platers, at about six furlongs, away to a ragged start. Right and True, 5 to 1, broke in front, with Miller up, and led for about a quarter of a mile, only to give way to Enoch Wishard's Penrhyn, a 100 to 1 shot, who led Shot Gun, 4 to 5 favorite, by a small margin into the homestretch. Belle Strome, 20 to 1, then joined them and Shot Gun had to be driven to win by a head, with Belle Strome a head before Penrhyn. The time was 1:11.

T. L. Watt's Lady Prudence, strongly backed at 16 to 5, enabled Garner to ride his third winner when she graduated from the maiden class in the last race, at a mile and a sixteenth. She came away in the last quarter and woneasily by a couple of lengths in 1:49 3-5, with P. J. Dwyer's Blue Stone, 8 to 1, running in the place, flye lengths before W. Shields's Holscher, 3 to 1 favorite, who sulked nearly all the way. Four favorites were defeated. The attendance was cose to 15,000. The

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 25.—It was the real thing on Yale Field this afternoon as Coach Rockwell lined up two elevens in a short but sharp scrimmage. In keeping with the rule followed this year, but little old fashioned football was seen, the scrimmage being given up to trick plays, in which the forward pass was a feature. One of sheep passes resulted in a touchdown.

The variety eleven had the ball first, but

The varsity eleven had the ball first, but was soon obliged to kick after but one rush that netted a gain followed by two losses. The scrub side tore through and around the The scrub side tore through and around the varsity line, making good gains until a short kick was essayed. Then the varsity tried a forward pass, Jones running and Knox getting the ball on the pass. The trick worked well and the pair secured forty yards and a touchdown between them.

The eleven to-day worked with a set of signals and did some tackling of the dummy, besides kicking and catching. Jim Hogan, Carl F. Landers and Frank Butterworth assisted flockwell in handling the candidates, the linemen getting particular attention. In his punting flooms showed up in fine form to-day, getting his kicks off with great accuracy and covering long distances. He also scored the second touchdown in the sorimmasse by plunging through the scrub line.

Lydig Hoyt, a back of a year ago, is expected here to-morrow to aid in d eveloping the team.

CAMBRIDGE, Sept. 25.—The Harvard foot-ball squad had its first scrimmag: this after-noon, playing a game of eight minutes. Most of this time was devoted to old style playing. three times, twice for team A and once for team B. One forward pass was used with in-different success, and two quarterback kicks team B. One forward pass was used with indifferent success, and two quarterback kicks were used by the first team, one of which gained eighteen yards. Team A, which will probably play the first game, lined up as
halfback; Apollonio and Gray, fullbacks.
Harvard's entire squad is now on the field, and while there seems to be a good set of men to pick a first string, there is little substitute material. For quarterback and centre there is a good squad. Kerans, who has been with the quarterbacks, has been changed to the halfback squad, and played a good game there to-day. Harvard's last morning practice was held to-day. Now that the coachehave done with their forward pass and side kick experiments the practice will be held in the open in a day or two.

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 25.-The Tigers jumped into the first scrimmage of the season to-day. After practising at tackling and passing, a varsity eleven was sent through signals. The team was especially instructed in speed, Quarterback Dillon driving his men hard in this line. Stannard was seen in the lineup for the first time. He played at tackle, but the general opinion seems to be that his regular position will be at guard. Herring was the other tackle; Capt. Dillon, guard; Rheinstein, centre; Hoag and Wister, ends; Eddie Dillon, quarterback, and Daub. McCormick and Tibbot in the back field. The scrimmage tasted about ten minutes in all. Capt. Dillon, Stannard and McCormick did not get into the rough work because the coaches do not want to take any chances so early in the season. The scrib kicked off and the varsity drove them back a few yards. Then there were several exchanges of kicks, but no scoring. Tibbot was clever at finding openings in the scrub defence. Rulon Miller coached the scrub to-day. He is in college, but is physically unable to get into the game for some time at least. Eddis Holt looked after the varsity line men.

No Football for Horace Mann Boys. The Horace Mann School boys are complaining because the edict of the authorities abolishing football extends even to them. abolishing football extends even to them. They have been denied the privilege of practising on South Field, where before they have always been permitted to play before the varsity practice. This takes away the hope which the freshmen and sophomores have been entertaining that their annual contest might be permitted, inasmuch as it is played with little preliminary practice to take time from college work.

TO COACH RUNNERS FROM AUTO. Up to Date Methods May Develop Columbia Cross-Country Team.

The opening of Columbia College to-day will be marked by the beginning of the fall practice of the track team. Nearly all the old members of the team will begin crosscountry work this afternoon under the direc-tion of Trainer Josh Crooks. Next Monday country team will be issued and from present indications nearly 100 men will report.

For the sake of putting cross-country run-ning on a firmer basis a cross-country association will be formed. Already many men have signified their intention of joining this association, which will direct the sport under a plan similar to that in force at Cornell. A trophy has been put up by a former cross-country captain for freshmen only, the man winning it holding it for one year after having his name engraved upon it. It is expected induced to compete than in previous years.

When regular cross-country work begins five squads will be formed with graduated speeds. Arrangements are being made to get a big automobile with a speedometer attached to pace the men. From this Trainer Urooks can do his coaching to advantage, as he will be able at all times to tell the exact pace of the men.

He expresses himself as pleased with the material in the freshman class that he has seen thus far. Adams, a crack bicycle rider of the New York Athletic Club. has been admitted to Columbia and signified his intention of doing long distance running. Babcock, a promising pole vaulter, from the Mount Vernon High School, is another likely freshman candidate. induced to compete than in previous years.

YAWL FOR DR. R. V. PIERCE. Built at City Island and Nearly Ready for

Her Trial Trip.

An auxiliary yacht is being built at Jacob's yard at City Island for Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo which is to be used this winter in Southern waters. The designs were made by Henry J. Gielow and the new boat is to be finished by October 1. Having in mind the shallowness of the Florida coast waters and the lagoons and rivers in that section tha boat has been designed with a centreboard which when hoisted will give her a draft of only 36 inches. She is fitted with two 25 horse-power standard motors which will only 36 inches. She is inched with two shorse-power standard motors which will drive twin screws. The dimensions of the boat are $8 feet 6 inches over all, 77 feet 5 inches on the water line and 22 feet beam.

Her accommodations are very large for a boat of her size. The saloon is reached by a companionway from the deck and is under a cabin trunk. This is fitted with transoms on each side. Overhead is a skylight and there are ports at the side, giving plenty of light and ventilation. Forward of this is a bath and toilet room and then comes the space for the motors. Forward again are the owner's stateroom, with bathroom attached, on the starboard side and two staterooms on the portside. These are entered from a passageway that runs through the centre of the yacht. There is a cold storage room where supplies can be kept and a roomy forecastle. The yacht will carry 650 gallons of gasolene, which will give her a large cruising radius. She will also carry four small boats on the davits, including a launch and 23 and 16 foot boats.

TWO BAGGERS FIGURE IN BOTH NEW YORK RUNS.

Brooklyns Hold Chicagos Level for Nine Innings and Are Deferred in the Tenth —Bestons Nose Out the Cardinals and the Philadelphias Smite the Pirates.

In every National League game yesterday there was a margin of just one run between the winner and the leser. Among the winners were the New Yorks, who downed the Cincinnatis, and the Chicagos, who worsted the Brooklyns. The Bostons conquered the St. Louis team and the Quakers took a fall out of the Pirates. NEW YORK (N. L.), 2; CINCINNATI, 1.

The runs at the Pole Grounds yesterday came singly and far apart, the New Yorks making two and defeating the Cincinnatis with that small supply. Numerically the Reds outbatted the New Yorks, but McGinnity was an abler artisan than Jake Weimer for all that. The Iron Kan was effective when men were on bases and there was some sharp support for him at such times. A hit by the Reds or a bobble by the New Yorks in the field would have altered the aspect several times, but the timely hit or the untimely bobble did not materialise.

Cincinnati hits began going to waste in the first inning. Huggins chopped an infield hit and reached second on Jude's grounder to McGana. Smoot tried hard to bring him in and smashed a stinger to centre, but Si Seymour was there with his good left arm and fired the ball in to Bresnahan on a beeline. Bresnahan tagged Huggins out.

Each side made hay in the second inning. The Cincinnati harvesters raised a crop of one run on Lobert's single, the same player's steal of second and annexation of third because second base was not covered and McLean's fly to Shannon. Two generous wallops gave the New Yorks their count in the second. Dahlen's double and Strang's the New Yorks won the game in the fifth on Browne's infield hit. Seymour's sacrifice and Bresnahan's scorcher to left. The Cincinnatis made two singles and a double in the seventh inning but did not realize anything, therefrom. After Smoot had singled. Strang, Dahlen and McGann made a sharp double play, and McLean, after hitting for two bases, was cut down at the plate on Shannon's pretty return of Corcoran's single. The score:

CHICAGO (N. L.), 1; BROOKLYN, 0.

The Brooklyns made the Chicagos move some to win yesterday's game at Washington Park, but the Chicagos did the needed moving when the pinch come. With the atifiest sort of pitching on both sides there was not a run until the tenth inning. It did not look as if there would be any scoring in that inning, Geseler and Sheckard going out quickly. Not so Schuite. That athlete signalized his return to the game by joiting a two bagger to left. Hofman promptly brought him home with a single. The Brooklyns made only one hit off Pfeister, the only hit in their last two games. The score:

Grimth's Men Lose Again and First Place Goes to Chicagos.

The New York Americans furnished another disappointment yesterday, losing their second straight to the Detroits. Hope, which was buoyed up by the fine showing in Chicago, has drooped a little, since the White Sox broke the tie for first place by drubbing the Bostons. But the White Sox are not out of the woods yet by a long shot. The New Yorks may come again, and besides the Clevelands are creeping up. They shut out the Philadelphias, who are a mere shadow of their former selves. The Washingtons lost in St. Louis. The results: Detroit, 6; New York, 5.

DETROIT, 8: NEW YORK (A. L.), 5.

DETROIT, Sept. 25.—In a heart bruising finish Detroit took its second straight game from New York to-day. The game started in as a victory for the visitors, shifted to a tie, became pronouncedly the New Yorks and then by bunching of hits became a home victory. It was bitterly contested every inch of the way and the long hits by Coughlin finally decided the struggle. A sharp double play by Elberteld and Williams was the fielding feature, while Coughlin, Schaefer, Conroy and Orth starred as batsmen.

The story of the runs: New York obtained its two in the second, when, with Williams put away, Laporte singled to centre and went to third on Moriarity's double to left. Laporte scored and Mortarity went to third on homan's long fly to Cobb. Eleinow's scratchy single tallied Moriarity. In the next three innings not a visitor reached second base, but in the sixth they filled the bags on two scratch singles, a sacrifice and a fielder's choice. Elberfeld was nipped at the plate and Moriarity stilled the hope of the visitors by fouling out.

In the seventh McGuire, who had replaced Kleinow, was hit by a pitched ball and scored on Orth's three bagger against the centre field fence. Orth scored on Elberfeld's single, but Elberfeld was caught trying to stretch it into a two bagger. The final run came in the eighth on Conroy's two bagger to left, Williams's sacrifice and Laporte's fly to Cobb. Detroit obtained its first run in the second on Cobb's single, Schmidt's sacrifice and Schaefer's hit. The next came in the fourth on Cobb's very doubtful single, his steal of second, Kleinow's wild throw to catch him stealing and Schaefer's safe poke. The two in the eighth came on McIntyre's drive for a base to left, Coughlin's two sacker in the same direction and Crawford's out on a grounder to Elberfeld, which tallied McIntyre and put Coughlin on third. Cobb's long fly to Keeler put Coughlin over. With two gone in the ninth Killian singled to left and was advanced to second on a base on balls to McIntyre. Coughlin drove a liner between left and centre, scoring Killian and McIntyre and the game was over. The score:

KERRY CATTLE ON LONG ISLAND

MRS. KATHRYN GOULD AND MRS. LADENBURG SHOW THEM.

Father Bill Daly's Tom Cod Scores Over Hunt Club Racers on Opening Day of the Queens-Nassau Fair - Amateurs Win With Herds, Sheep and Swine.

"Oh, the joy of the Kerry cattle!" was the way they sang the old song at the opening of the sixty-fifth annual fair at Mineola yesterday. There were eight of the short legged, chunky, dark brindle Kerry cattle on view, the first from Ireland ever exhibited on Long Island. They are importations from the Dexter herd, two bulls and four cows being entered by Mrs. Kathryn Gould of Port Washington and a cow and calf, the latter as red as a Texas steer, shown by Mrs. Emily Ladenburg of Westbury. The Kerry cows came from a mountainous region, and there are as active as goats and great milkers on scant forage. Straight from the heights of McGil-licuddy Reeks, there are doubts as to whether or not the Kerry cattle will do well in the comfortable stalls of the amateur farmers. The importations are a special exhibit. They come from near Cahirciveen, Daniel O'Connell's birthplace.

Gentlemen farmers won a fair share of the prizes in the regular cattle classes. The herd prize in Jerseys and in graded native breeds, each of $50, were won by R. S. Smith of Oyster Bay, R. H. Robbins of East Williston taking the second prize of $20 in the latter varieties A fine showing of Guernseys won the herd prize for Clarence H. Mackay, Robert Bacon of Westbury getting the second prize The Underhill clan of Jericho, who have dairy farms and do not keep them up for the fun of it, won the herd prizes in Holsteins, Shorthorns and Ayrahires.

There was but one herd of Devons and only a second prize went to the owner, C. S. Van Sise of Woodsburg, Mrs. Emily Ladenburg, who is a well known rider to hounds, also won with Southdown and Shropshire sheep. Timothy Treadwell, who brings the rare water fowl to the New York poultry show. was a winner in the sheep classes. In the swine classes Mrs. Kathryn Gould won with Farm, Glen Cove, won with Essex and York-shire breeds. It will take two days to judge the poultry exhibits. White Rocks and Sacrifice hits- Brown Leghorns are shown by W. K. Vander-

Since the consolidation the fair has been held by the Queens-Nassau Agricultural Society, but it is the same "Old Home Week" for Long Islanders and for Manhattan and Brooklyn folks claiming Long Island descent, All the old timers make it a point to shake hands first of all with Secretary Lott Van de Water, Jr., and he had to put a glove over the blisters on his right hand in the afternoon. All the old side shows were running, and

All the old side shows were running, and something new was an open air circus, the clever women and men acrobats and trapeze performers doing their acts on a platform before the grand stand. Another new exhibit was of Long Island's thriving industry, the selling of real estate. The agents had tents in which to show their maps and photographs, with automobiles in waiting to carry prospective buyers to see the lots.

There was an exceptionally fine display of cut flowers in one building, while several tents were used by seed and plant dealers for their exhibits. One of them, in the few hours, available, before the afternoon rush, transformed the turf before his tent into a garden of palms, box trees and firs. There was an arch of growing cedars leading through this garden, and only a manor house in the background was lacking to give the impression of antiquity to the creation of a few hours. The plants were planted in their boxes, to tell the secret of this sudden change while the earth about the shrubs was tied with bagging in transit and planted without the coverings of the roots being taken off. There were exhibits of lace and needlework, darned work, paintings, sketches and housework of many sorts in the women's building. The educational exhibits of the pupils in the public schools of the two counties filled another building and were very complete. The competitive exhibits were of maps, water colors, black and white sketching, constructive and free hand drawing, work with tools and sewing, the displays being classified according to the school grades of the pupils in the public schools of the two counties filled another building and were very complete.
